EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. It is important that shareholders cast their votes in respect of the business to be conducted at the AGM and we strongly urge all shareholders to register their vote in advance by appointing the chairman of the AGM, as their proxy and give voting instructions. As a member of the Company, you may appoint more than one proxy provided each proxy is appointed to exercise rights attached to different shares (so a member must have more than one share to be able to appoint more than one proxy). A proxy need not be a member of the Company but must attend the AGM in order to represent you. A proxy must vote in accordance with any instructions given by the member by whom the proxy is appointed. Appointing a proxy will not prevent a member from attending in person and voting at the AGM.
2. You should appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these Explanatory Notes. Please indicate with an 'X' in the appropriate boxes how you wish the proxy to vote. The proxy will exercise his discretion as to how he votes or whether he abstains from voting:
 - (a) on any resolution referred to above if no instruction is given in respect of that resolution; and
 - (b) on any business or resolution considered at the meeting other than resolutions referred to above.The 'Vote Withheld' option is provided to enable you to instruct your proxy to abstain from voting on a particular resolution; however it should be noted that a 'Vote Withheld' is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of the votes 'For' and 'Against' a resolution.
3. If you wish to appoint someone other than the chairman of the meeting as your proxy please delete the words 'chairman of the meeting' and insert the name and address of the person you wish to appoint. A proxy need not be a member of the Company but must attend the Meeting to represent you. Shareholders are reminded that if they appoint anyone, other than the Chairman of the Meeting, that person will not be able to attend the AGM under the current government guidelines and their votes may not be counted. Therefore, if Shareholders wish to appoint a proxy, they are strongly recommended to appoint the Chairman of the Meeting as their proxy.
4. If the proxy is being appointed in relation to less than your full voting entitlement, please enter in the box next to the proxy holder's name the number of shares in relation to which they are authorised to act as your proxy. If left blank, your proxy will be deemed to be authorised in respect of your full voting entitlement (or if this proxy form has been issued in respect of a designated account for a shareholder, the full voting entitlement for that designated account).
5. In the case of a member which is a corporation, this form must be executed under its common seal (if any) or the hand of its duly authorised officer or an attorney or other person authorised so to sign. In the case of an individual, the proxy must be signed by the appointer or his agent, duly authorised in writing.
6. If this form of proxy is signed under a power of attorney (or equivalent authority) please include the original power of attorney or equivalent authority (or a duly certified copy of such power of attorney or equivalent authority) when you return this form of proxy to the Company's registrars (Share Registrars Limited).
7. In the case of joint holders of shares, the vote of the first named in the register of members who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of other joint holders.
8. To appoint more than one proxy you may photocopy this form. Additional proxy forms may also be obtained by contacting the Company's registrars. Please indicate the proxy holder's name and the number of shares in relation to which they are authorised to act as your proxy (which, in aggregate, should not exceed the number of shares held by you). You may not appoint more than one proxy to exercise rights attached to any one share. Please also indicate if the proxy instruction is one of multiple instructions being given. All forms must be signed and should be returned together in the same envelope.
9. Where two or more valid separate appointments of proxy are received in respect of the same share in respect of the same meeting, the one which is last validly received (regardless of its date or the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others. If the Company is unable to determine which of any of such two or more otherwise valid but conflicting proxy forms was last received, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.
10. To validly appoint a proxy using this form of proxy:
